

this part without furnishing such customer the disclosure statements required under §§ 1.55, 1.65, 33.7, and 190.10 of this chapter: Provided, however, that the futures commission merchant or, in the case of an introduced account, the introducing broker, does furnish the customer, prior to the customer's entry into the first section 4(c) contract market transaction with respect to a particular instrument, with disclosure appropriate to the particular instrument and the customer.

(b) This section does not relieve a futures commission merchant or introducing broker from any other disclosure obligation it may have under applicable law.

§ 36.8 Suspension or revocation of section 4(c) contract market transaction exemption.

The Commission may, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, suspend or revoke the exemption of any section 4(c) contract market transaction if the Commission determines that the exemption is no longer consistent with the public interest and the purposes of the Act.

§ 36.9 Fraud and manipulation in connection with section 4(c) contract market transactions.

(a) Fraud. The requirements of sections 4b(a) and 4o of the Act and § 33.10 of this chapter shall apply to section 4(c) contract market transactions. In any event, it shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, in or in connection with an offer to enter into, the entry into, the confirmation of the execution of, or the maintenance of any transaction entered into pursuant to this part—

(1) To cheat or defraud or attempt to cheat or defraud any other person;

(2) Willfully to make or cause to be made to any other person any false report or statement thereof or cause to be entered for any person any false record thereof;

(3) Willfully to deceive or attempt to deceive any other person by any means whatsoever.

(b) Manipulation. The requirements of sections 6(c), 6(d), and 9(a) of the Act and § 33.9(d) of this chapter shall apply to section 4(c) contract market transactions.

PART 100—DELIVERY PERIOD REQUIRED

AUTHORITY: 7 U.S.C. 7a(a)(4) and 12a.

§ 100.1 Delivery period required with respect to certain grains.

A period of seven business days is required during which contracts for future delivery in the current delivery month of wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, or flaxseed may be settled by delivery of the actual cash commodity after trading in such contracts has ceased, for each delivery month after May 1938, on all contract markets on which there is trading in futures in any of such commodities, and such contract markets, and each of them, are directed to provide therefor.
